

2016 Bulk Trash Pickup Schedule

Please note that the date of your collection depends on whether you live in a designated green or gold area, according to the bulk maps (see links below). You can also click here to use our FIND YOUR BULK TRASH DATE feature by simply putting in your address, hit the enter key, and click on the map when it appears and the day and dates of your bulk pickup will pop up!

Each area has a designated week. Please note that single-family bulk collection is one day per month.

Please note that the former Special District schedule is located on the gold map and the Condo/Multifamily schedule is located on both maps.
